

Published by George Benham, at his office, CORNER FRONT AND BRIDGE STREETS.

LET THERE BE HARMONY.

IN THINGS NOT ESSENTIAL, CHARITY IN ALL.

DEPARTMENT DIVISION AND REFERENCE PER ANNUM.

IN SENT BY MAIL TWENTY DOLLARS.

NO. 42

BELLEVILLE, U. S. A. JUNE 22, 1888.

VOL. IV.

PUBLIC DINNER TO DOCTOR NELSON.

Agreeable to the arrangements made at a previous meeting assembled for the purpose of inviting Dr. Nelson and Dr. Cole to partake of a public dinner in token of their estimation in which their private characters, as well as the noble part they have taken in the cause of civil liberty in Canada, is held by the people of Vermont, a very large number of the most respectable citizens of Montpelier and vicinity sat down, on the eve of the 22nd instant, to an excellent table, prepared by Messrs. Church and Sherman, of the Union House, in this village. Jonathan P. Miller, the agent of the Americans in Greece, presided, assisted by Annuals Waterman, William Upham, J. F. Vail, Cyrus Ware and Doctors Lamb and Burham, as Vice Presidents. The company having been seated at the table, Dr. Nelson, the distinguished guest, (Dr. Cole having been prevented by the situation of his domestic affairs from accepting the invitation), was introduced by William Upham, Esq.

After the dinner had been partaken, and the tables cleared, the following set toasts, prepared and delivered by the gentlemen whose names are respectively prefixed, were drunk accompanied by appropriate airs from the Montpelier band and the discharge of guns:

By William K. Upham, Esq.—Liberty and God only!—Though clouds may darken their prospects for a time, yet the sun of their prosperity will soon rise in its glory, shedding its golden beams of cheering rays upon a free and happy people.

The spirit of civil liberty!—Tyrants and oppressors may curb and restrain it for a time, but it is as unconquerable as the lightning of heaven, and co-existent with virtue and intelligence.

The exiled Canadians!—The name "rebels" applied to those struggling for the inalienable privileges of civil and political liberty, shall never deter freemen from extending the hospitality due the fellow men, wherever of our race or of a foreign land.

River Raisin and St. Eastwick!—They remain, and will ever remain, as loving members of the British Empire.

Lord and Maltheus!—Patriots and martyrs! May the "tree of liberty" spring from the soil upon which their blood is shed, and over which their blood is shed.

Provinces of Canada!—Sir Francis B. Head and Sir J. Colborne!—Worthy patriots, and instruments to debase the temple of liberty and pollute her sacred altars.

By L. L. Lamb—Green Mountain Jurisdiction!—They inherit too much of the spirit, intelligence and incorruptible firmness of their sires, to fine and imprison a man for no worse a crime than that of extending for a republican government.

The Vermont Presses!—Nobly have they spoken in the cause of civil liberty. Good need the day when they will have the pleasure of announcing the independence of the Canadas.

By D. P. Thompson—The oppressed Canadians!—Let them rest assured that the prayers and sympathies of the Green Mountain boys will ever be theirs, so long as they are struggling for freedom.

The Marquis of St. Denis St. Charles and St. Eastwick!—May every drop of blood shed, like the soot of the fabled dragon, spring up an armed man to avenge the wrongs of his country.

The haughty oppressors of the Canadian Patriots!—They may exult now, but let them remember,

"That Freedom's battle once begun,

Requiescunt in bedibus sine us,

That's baffled off, is always won."

The projector of the "gallant affair of the Steamer Caroline!"—The Hon. C. McNab, recently knighted by the Queen for his matchless bravery and skill in murdering a score of unarmed American citizens, in his exalted and reward we are taught the exact price of a British title.

After the regular toasts had been drunk, the President rose and gave:

Our guest, Dr. Robert Nelson!—Driven from his country and his home by the iron hand of oppression—may he ever find in the United States "the cradle of the exile, and the home of the oppressed."

As soon as the enthusiastic and reiterated applause, with which the toast given by the speaker at the close of his remarks, was received, had subsided, Dr. Nelson rose, and with visible emotion, proceeded in a very appropriate and handsome manner, to return his thanks to the company for the present testimony of their esteem and respect; after which he gave a succinct and lucid statement of the grievances which had forced him to resign, and to seek in the arms of the present, and future prospects, under the iron hand of government, which, more than ever, was now grinding them in to dust.

expressing the gratification he felt, not only on account of the honor done him personally on the occasion, but because he read in it a proof that the motives which had actuated his comparisons, was rightly appreciated, by so intelligent a community, he closed by offering the following sentiment:

Fermat!—May her sentiments of republicanism, and cherished feelings of liberty, pass into the hearts of her posterity, and there remain as firmly fixed as the mountains of her state.

VOLUNTEER TOASTS.

By Wm. Upham, after introducing to the company Horatio Nelson, (son of Dr. Wollard Nelson) by whose rifle six of the enemy were slain at St. Denis:

Horatio Nelson!—The young Hero of St. Denis!—He nobly resisted the enemies of his country on the fields of battle, and there registered his name in the annals of his country's glory.

By Captain J. A. Vail.—The freemen of Plattsburgh, N. Y.—The last war bears witness to their bravery—the Canadian exiles of '37 and '38 will attest to their sympathy and generosity.

By the same—Our Guest, Mr. Palmer, of Plattsburgh—Honor to him who dared to rescue the patriot Bryant from the custody of the petty tyrant, General Wool.

The freemen of Vermont!—Claiming ancestors who have scattered glory on their country; enjoying rights and institutions bequeathed to them by their forefathers; their ready and fearless sympathy and assistance for the oppressed everywhere, prove them worthy of their inheritance.

By D. P. Thompson—The exalted virtues of Wolfred Nelson, who, in the words of the talented lady of our distinguished guest—

"Scorned the idle pageantry of monarchy and power; Who, in the depths of cloistered halls, with horror on his brow, And tried to burn his people's chains, and blot that they should be Linked with the happy of the earth—the joyous and the free!"

By the President—The Earl of Durham!—His best inspirations have been the Durham short-reins.

By A. Spalding, Esq.—Wolfred Nelson!—The Ethio! A lion of Lower Canada; a tyrant may chain his body, but they cannot ensnare his soul.

By the President—Brigadier Gen. Wool!—There are who will engage in its cause when danger is past; but overlooking honor to him who strikes the first blow.

By the President—Brigadier Gen. Wool!—There are who will engage in its cause when danger is past; but overlooking honor to him who strikes the first blow.

By H. W. Heaton, Esq.—The progress of free government!—May that day soon dawn when we see the flag of our Union upon this continent shall acknowledge the dominion of European power.

By J. T. Marston, Esquire!—The 500 with which the Tory papers of Montreal boasted they could march from Maine to Florida, burn and destroy our cities, our shipping in our harbors, and lay the whole country under contribution for silver, and their way open to knocking out their brains with broomsticks.

By Dr. J. Y. Dewey!—The members of the medical profession in Canada—With a few exceptions, they are all in the hands of the cause of liberty and the people—a practical exemplification of what sacrifices physicians everywhere make for the good of mankind.

By Captain A. Smith—Our Guest, Dr. Robert Nelson!—Welcome, thrice welcome, to the "Home of the stranger, the asylum of the oppressed."

By H. W. Heaton!—The late destruction of the Queen's Own:

"Come evening cast their shadows before,"

By A. Spalding Esq.—The Tories of Canada!—Like Judas, they betrayed their country for silver, and like him they may go and hang themselves.

By J. Y. Dewey—Wool!—At present a dog in the market, in consequence of an inferior and coarse kind having been among us.

By D. P. Thompson—Lord Durham!—The new Governor of the Canadas—However the people this side of the water may admire his breed of cattle, they want none of his politics.

By Captain A. Smith—Our Guest, Dr. Robert Nelson!—Welcome, thrice welcome, to the "Home of the stranger, the asylum of the oppressed."

By J. T. Marston, Esq.—The indemnity claimed of the United States by the Canadian Government!—In the name of the "masters of the ocean." We greet thee, sister: our Green Mountain boys are prepared to go to thy assistance.

By J. T. Marston, Esq.—The indemnity claimed of the United States by the Canadian Government!—In the name of the "masters of the ocean." We greet thee, sister: our Green Mountain boys are prepared to go to thy assistance.

By J. T. Marston, Esq.—The indemnity claimed of the United States by the Canadian Government!—In the name of the "masters of the ocean." We greet thee, sister: our Green Mountain boys are prepared to go to thy assistance.

By J. T. Marston, Esq.—The indemnity claimed of the United States by the Canadian Government!—In the name of the "masters of the ocean." We greet thee, sister: our Green Mountain boys are prepared to go to thy assistance.

By J. T. Marston, Esq.—The indemnity claimed of the United States by the Canadian Government!—In the name of the "masters of the ocean." We greet thee, sister: our Green Mountain boys are prepared to go to thy assistance.

By J. T. Marston, Esq.—The indemnity claimed of the United States by the Canadian Government!—In the name of the "masters of the ocean." We greet thee, sister: our Green Mountain boys are prepared to go to thy assistance.

The Canadian Refuge!—Fermat, welcome!—This is the place where we've aimed that the first blow.

Give us the hand to shake which has clutched down The famous manifest!

To deliver Sir!—This land of Worcester and Washington, Was bought with blood—our dearly won, Of British greed, it was our gain.

And yet, with blood and tears as thine, We gladly share its soil and wine, And wish to die on its free soil.

Private Mary's!—Yes, the tyrant and the church and state, May glit its deadly darts, and slay the free, With patriot blood, and with the blood of the free.

Produce the lives of the dead, To raise another dead.

By J. Y. Vail.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

By the same.—The Tree of Liberty—Planted by our fathers, in this free land, nourished and defended by their descendants, may it continue to flourish until it covers every foot of soil in North America.

we should as one man require satisfaction at the hands of the Queen's Government.

Justice!—We should like to know how his knightship, or any one else, how the "national honor" of the United States has been tarnished by the robbery committed by the Queen's subjects, who stole into our waters to do it.

"For payment for the boat 'her majesty's subjects' must look to the offenders, or to her majesty herself, for not keeping her rioters and robbers within the bounds of the laws."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

or of your address, to exercise the high functions entrusted to me with Justice and Mercy.

Justice!—We should like to know how his knightship, or any one else, how the "national honor" of the United States has been tarnished by the robbery committed by the Queen's subjects, who stole into our waters to do it.

"For payment for the boat 'her majesty's subjects' must look to the offenders, or to her majesty herself, for not keeping her rioters and robbers within the bounds of the laws."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

"Well might Napoleon exclaim—'they are no character!' The worst consequence of these repeated insults and injuries, is, that in the event of war they will give to it a more terrible character than any preceding conflict has borne.—E. or P. A."

"The other parts of his Excellency's proclamation are more 'healer and punisher,' and we shall pass them over, with the single remark, that it is a great pity that her majesty cannot select a man of sense and judgment as her viceregent in the Upper Province."

JUST ARRIVED. DIRECT FROM BRITAIN, AND FOR SALE

At the Chronicle & Gazette Store, corner of King and George Streets, a large assortment of STATIONERY, of every description, consisting of—

Writing Paper, from small quarto post to imperial.

Note, Ruled and Colored Paper, various kinds.

Blank Books, all kinds and sizes, from two penny memorandum to a six pound ledger.

Bibles, Testaments, Psalms, Prayer Books, Watts' and Wesley's Hymns in great variety and elegantly bound.

Morrison and Wellingham's Arithmetic and Keys.

Olney's, Woodbridge's and Willard's Geographies, with Atlases.

Johnson and Walker's Dictionaries, different sizes.

English Readers, Introductions, Grammars, Spelling Books, Primers, Child's First Book and a great variety of Toy Books.

Song Books, various kinds.

Churches of England and Scotland, and Penance's Catechisms.

Upper Canada Statutes & Provincial Justices.

With many other books too numerous to state here.

Blank, red, and blue ink, and Ink Powders.

Penknives, from the largest awl to small cross blades, Pencils, Rulers, &c.

Drawing Paper, various sizes, and beautiful teatime.

Music, Music Books, and Music Paper, various ratings and sizes.

Paint Boxes and Pens.

Letter Cases and Post Folios.

Pocket Books and Wallets, very elegant Maps, Charts, and various kinds.

Playing, Printing and Visiting Cards.

Backgammon Boxes, with men and dice.

Chess men, Puzzles, &c.

Pasteboards & Bonnet-binders, various sizes.

Ornamental Screen Handles.

Letter Folders, ivory and bone.

Waters, Sealing Wax, India Rubber, Printing Writing Desks, &c. &c.

N.B. The Printing Office and Bindery are in daily and full operation, where all kinds of work in the line are executed with neatness and dispatch.

In the Bindery there is an excellent Ruling Machine in constant use, where paper for Books, &c. is ruling with dispatch, and a neatness not excelled in British North America.

Kingston, August, 1837.

SMITH'S
FOUR MAN'S COUGH DROPS.

A truly approved Medicine
von
Coughs, Colds, Asthmatic Affections, Hooping Cough, &c. &c.

These drops have been found
one of the most efficacious remedies
for the above complaints, and have been used with the most decided success in the private practice of a late eminent Surgeon and Apothecary;
and are now at the request
of numerous individuals; offered to the Public at a cheap price, so as to enable the Poor to partake of their beneficial effects.

This Medicine may also be given
to children of any age; and its efficacy
in such, as in most instances
it will be found to effect a cure from a few doses.

In Hooping Cough, no medicine
has been used with more decided advantage.

Sold in Bottles 1s 3d each by E. CHANDLER.
BELLEVILLE, U. C.

FOR SALE
In the flourishing Town of Belleville
The West half of lot No 15, on Pinnacle
street, on which are a Dwelling House
and barn. The House is well adapted for a family. The lot has two fronts, being on Dundas and Pinnacle streets.
Houses and lot in the centre of Front street,
opposite John Turnbull, Esq. being 28 feet
front, back to low water mark. The House
has every convenience for a family, and shop.
For Particulars apply at the Office of the Intelligencer, or the proprietor on the premises.
JOSEPH SMITH.
Belleville, April 12, 1837. 311f

LAND, HOUSE, AND GENERAL AGENCY.
The undersigned has the honor to inform
the public, that he has opened a General Agency Office. He is led to believe that he could be of service to those who wish to dispose of their property by private contract,
and that his office, once known, would be the means of pointing out many more situations
for the settlement of persons of capital, than
under the present circumstances are known.
He solicits public patronage, as well from
those who wish to sell as those who wish to purchase.
GEORGE BENJAMIN.
Belleville Oct. 1837.

Castings and Pig Iron.
The Madoc Furnace is now in full blast, where Castings and Pig Iron, of superior quality, may be had at the lowest prices for prompt pay.
PENDELGAST & SEYMOUR.
Belleville, Nov. 10, 1837.

Notice.

HAVING understood that a Street called Edmund street
has been laid out across my lot, fronting on John Street, at the end which joins said lot to that of Zenas Dufour,
I do hereby correspond with and intersect a street laid out by Edmund Murney Esq. across his property, this is to Caution the public against
being deceived by any supposition
of the existence of such street across my lot. I never have consented to it, and do not sanction it, when I do,
the Public shall have notice of it.
ELIJAH KETCHISON.
Sidney 21st March. 1838.

NOTICE.

ALL persons having claims against
the estate of the late William Perry, of the Township of Sidney, are requested to present their accounts, and those indebted are requested
to make immediate payment.
H. HAGERMAN, Executor.
Sidney 8 March, 1838.

BLANK DEEDS, Memorials, Courts of Requests, Blanks of all descriptions
for Sale at this Office.

Combination of Literary Talent:

MRS. HALE and MISS LESLIE.

THE LADY'S BOOK.

Having a larger circulation than any other
monthly periodical in America—a coloured
plate of the latest fashions in every number.

It was with sincere pleasure that the publisher mentioned, last season, the arrangement
by which The Lady's Book and Ladies' American Magazine were united and to be edited by Mrs. Sarah J. Hale; it is with equal pleasure
that he now informs the patrons of the work,
that he has made an arrangement with Mrs.
Leslie, author of the Sketches, Mrs. Washington Potts, &c. &c. who will be connected with the work.

Mrs. Leslie, having lent interest to the publication of the Lady's Book. Her powerful aid will commence with the January No. 1838. In addition to the above, every number of the work next year will contain a plate of superbly
coloured fashions.

The subscriber endeavours, by extraordinary
exertions, to show his gratitude for the very
many favours he has received from his kind friends, the public. From among the many female writers of America, perhaps no two
talents are so well calculated to adorn a work
like the Lady's Book.

TERMS—The terms of the Lady's Book
five dollars, payable in advance.
All orders must be addressed to

Literary Rooms, Chestnut St., one door below 7th, Philadelphia.

THE NOVELS OF THE CELEBRATED DUC
DE BARLE, Godey's Edition.—Vivian Grey, Containing the History of the Duke of Barle, the Young Duke, Washington, Tale of Alroy, Henrietta Temple, Venice. Price of the whole work three dollars.

The Lady's Book and D'Israeli's Novels
will be sent entire for five dollars in advance,
postage paid.

Notes current in the different States from whence orders are received, will be taken at par for subscriptions to the Lady's Book.

As the Publisher of the Lady's Book is connected with the other popular periodicals, he suggests, for the purpose of remittance, the following system of

CLIPPING;
Lady's Book and D'Israeli's Novels, . . . $5
The Lady's Book and D'Israeli's Novels, . . . $5
Bulwer's and Marryat's Novels, . . . $5
The Lady's Book and D'Israeli's Novels, . . . $5
Bulwer's and Marryat's Novels, . . . $5
The Lady's Book and D'Israeli's Novels, . . . $5
Bulwer's and Marryat's Novels, . . . $5
The Lady's Book and D'Israeli's Novels, . . . $5
Bulwer's and Marryat's Novels, . . . $5

Notice.
ALL persons are hereby forbidden
to purchase or in any manner
trade for two promissory Notes
due 6th January 1839 for £5.—and
the other 1st Jan. 1839, for £9. 8. 1.
both payable to John Holborn,
bearer, as they are my property and
have been taken from me in a fraudulent
manner.
JOHN HOLBORN.
April 2nd 1838.

Evening School.
W. K. BLAND will open an Evening
School Monday next, for the convenience
of those who cannot attend during the day.
Belleville Nov. 21st 1837.

NOTICE.

ALL persons are hereby forbid-
den to purchase or in any man-
ner trade for two promissory Notes,
payable to David Palmer, or bearer,
for the sum of £25 each. One due
1st Jan. 1839, one 1st Jan. 1839,
one on the 1st Jan. 1841, as I have not received value for them, and shall not
pay them.
JAMES COLE.
Tyendinaga, April 23, 1838.

Notice.
ALL persons are hereby forbid-
den to purchase or in any man-
ner trade for two promissory Notes,
payable to David Palmer, or bearer,
for the sum of £25 each. One due
1st Jan. 1839, one 1st Jan. 1839,
one on the 1st Jan. 1841, as I have not received value for them, and shall not
pay them.
JAMES COLE.
Tyendinaga, April 23, 1838.

Notice.
ALL persons are hereby forbid-
den to purchase or in any man-
ner trade for two promissory Notes,
payable to David Palmer, or bearer,
for the sum of £25 each. One due
1st Jan. 1839, one 1st Jan. 1839,
one on the 1st Jan. 1841, as I have not received value for them, and shall not
pay them.
JAMES COLE.
Tyendinaga, April 23, 1838.

Notice.
ALL persons are hereby forbid-
den to purchase or in any man-
ner trade for two promissory Notes,
payable to David Palmer, or bearer,
for the sum of £25 each. One due
1st Jan. 1839, one 1st Jan. 1839,
one on the 1st Jan. 1841, as I have not received value for them, and shall not
pay them.
JAMES COLE.
Tyendinaga, April 23, 1838.

Notice.
ALL persons are hereby forbid-
den to purchase or in any man-
ner trade for two promissory Notes,
payable to David Palmer, or bearer,
for the sum of £25 each. One due
1st Jan. 1839, one 1st Jan. 1839,
one on the 1st Jan. 1841, as I have not received value for them, and shall not
pay them.
JAMES COLE.
Tyendinaga, April 23, 1838.

Notice.
ALL persons are hereby forbid-
den to purchase or in any man-
ner trade for two promissory Notes,
payable to David Palmer, or bearer,
for the sum of £25 each. One due
1st Jan. 1839, one 1st Jan. 1839,
one on the 1st Jan. 1841, as I have not received value for them, and shall not
pay them.
JAMES COLE.
Tyendinaga, April 23, 1838.

Notice.
ALL persons are hereby forbid-
den to purchase or in any man-
ner trade for two promissory Notes,
payable to David Palmer, or bearer,
for the sum of £25 each. One due
1st Jan. 1839, one 1st Jan. 1839,
one on the 1st Jan. 1841, as I have not received value for them, and shall not
pay them.
JAMES COLE.
Tyendinaga, April 23, 1838.

Notice.
ALL persons are hereby forbid-
den to purchase or in any man-
ner trade for two promissory Notes,
payable to David Palmer, or bearer,
for the sum of £25 each. One due
1st Jan. 1839, one 1st Jan. 1839,
one on the 1st Jan. 1841, as I have not received value for them, and shall not
pay them.
JAMES COLE.
Tyendinaga, April 23, 1838.

Notice.
ALL persons are hereby forbid-
den to purchase or in any man-
ner trade for two promissory Notes,
payable to David Palmer, or bearer,
for the sum of £25 each. One due
1st Jan. 1839, one 1st Jan. 1839,
one on the 1st Jan. 1841, as I have not received value for them, and shall not
pay them.
JAMES COLE.
Tyendinaga, April 23, 1838.

Notice.
ALL persons are hereby forbid-
den to purchase or in any man-
ner trade for two promissory Notes,
payable to David Palmer, or bearer,
for the sum of £25 each. One due
1st Jan. 1839, one 1st Jan. 1839,
one on the 1st Jan. 1841, as I have not received value for them, and shall not
pay them.
JAMES COLE.
Tyendinaga, April 23, 1838.

Notice.
ALL persons are hereby forbid-
den to purchase or in any man-
ner trade for two promissory Notes,
payable to David Palmer, or bearer,
for the sum of £25 each. One due
1st Jan. 1839, one 1st Jan. 1839,
one on the 1st Jan. 1841, as I have not received value for them, and shall not
pay them.
JAMES COLE.
Tyendinaga, April 23, 1838.

Notice.
ALL persons are hereby forbid-
den to purchase or in any man-
ner trade for two promissory Notes,
payable to David Palmer, or bearer,
for the sum of £25 each. One due
1st Jan. 1839, one 1st Jan. 1839,
one on the 1st Jan. 1841, as I have not received value for them, and shall not
pay them.
JAMES COLE.
Tyendinaga, April 23, 1838.

Notice.
ALL persons are hereby forbid-
den to purchase or in any man-
ner trade for two promissory Notes,
payable to David Palmer, or bearer,
for the sum of £25 each. One due
1st Jan. 1839, one 1st Jan. 1839,
one on the 1st Jan. 1841, as I have not received value for them, and shall not
pay them.
JAMES COLE.
Tyendinaga, April 23, 1838.

Notice.
ALL persons are hereby forbid-
den to purchase or in any man-
ner trade for two promissory Notes,
payable to David Palmer, or bearer,
for the sum of £25 each. One due
1st Jan. 1839, one 1st Jan. 1839,
one on the 1st Jan. 1841, as I have not received value for them, and shall not
pay them.
JAMES COLE.
Tyendinaga, April 23, 1838.

STEAM

THIS MILL is for offering for getting Lumber
will be re-
served and entered into the
SAVED LUM-BER FOR LATHES FOR
orders and
will set doing in the Lumber

Sash-stuff, Mouldings, DOOR and WINDOW CASINGS,
and in fact every description of small work
made to size, ready for the job, and at far less expense than the cost of working up
by hand, as there will be no waste.

A Dry House will be attached to the premises in the Spring so that lumber can be roughly seasoned on very short notice, and
the facilities for shipping are such that lumber
can be sent to any port on the Bay, River or Lakes.

Customers' logs saved on shares as is usual
with other Mills, and sold up at all times.
Lumber over 22 feet in length, cannot be sawed before the opening of navigation, but
will be (if required) shortly.

No admittance to the Mill except on business, by a ticket given by the proprietor, or in company with him. Requests from individuals
wishing to see the mill, will be attended to at any time he may be in the mill.

BILLA FLINT, Jr.
Belleville Jan. 25th 1837. 204f
C. N. B.—Wanted 40 cords of Dry Pine and Hard wood.

Notice.
ANSON HAYDEN, formerly my partner,
having absconded from this Province,
and taken with him the Books, Notes and
other property of ALLEN & HAY-DEN, this is to forbid all persons to pay any Note or Account to any person but myself, as I shall look to them for payment of all sums
due to Allen & Hayden.

ELIJAH ALLEN,
Belleville, 25th March, 1838.

Notice.
ALL persons indebted to the undersigned,
either by Note or Book account, are hereby notified, that all his Books and Notes are transferred to BILLA FLINT, Jun. Esq. and SMITH
BAXTER, Jun. Esq. who only he has full power and authority to receive.

The immediate attention of all persons indebted to him is requested.
T. RICHMOND.
Belleville, 16 July 1838.

N. B.—R. can at all times be found at the Store of SURGEON J. E. J. Esq.

TO THE PRINTERS OF British North America.

THE Subscribers have caused to be Agents
for the MONTHLY TYPE FOUN-DRY, from this date. In future, all orders
must be addressed to the proprietors,
T. GUERIN & Co.
JONES & Co.

Dec 29, 1836. 111
Editor of papers are requested to publish the above, and they will receive two dollars worth of Type in payment.

Neat Cabinet Articles.
THE undersigned, grateful for
the past favors, begs leave to return his sincere thanks to the inhabitants of the County of Hastings,
for the many favors which has
been bestowed on his business,
the last three years, the period
at which he commenced

CHAIRMAKING
Cabinet Work,
in BELLEVILLE.

He will at all times be ready to make to order, any article of Cabinet Work, or any description of Chair, and will constantly keep on hand a large assortment, to suit
the immediate wants and calls of the public.

Full confidence in the success
which has hitherto crowned his efforts, is to be attributed to a close attention to business, and a promptitude to execute all orders, he will endeavor to continue to merit that
patronage which has been extended
to him.

He has removed to the stand formerly occupied by Mr James Bick-
ford, in Front Street, whose business has been merged into the Subscriber's.

MILLER BAKER.
25th October, 1837.

Notice.
THE Iron Mill on the North side of Southern
assortment of the best of the most yield-
ing quality, which is to be sold at a low
price, and on credit, to the public, on either
part their Ware and other Traffic, and
sent into this to the North, not daring to
PENDE and fear, that at peace
Belleville, 18th October of the Union may
Sides of Ware material seized upon the
of Sir G. M. Wells.

Notice.
THE Iron Mill on the North side of Southern
assortment of the best of the most yield-
ing quality, which is to be sold at a low
price, and on credit, to the public, on either
part their Ware and other Traffic, and
sent into this to the North, not daring to
PENDE and fear, that at peace
Belleville, 18th October of the Union may
Sides of Ware material seized upon the
of Sir G. M. Wells.

Notice.
THE Iron Mill on the North side of Southern
assortment of the best of the most yield-
ing quality, which is to be sold at a low
price, and on credit, to the public, on either
part their Ware and other Traffic, and
sent into this to the North, not daring to
PENDE and fear, that at peace
Belleville, 18th October of the Union may
Sides of Ware material seized upon the
of Sir G. M. Wells.

Notice.
THE Iron Mill on the North side of Southern
assortment of the best of the most yield-
ing quality, which is to be sold at a low
price, and on credit, to the public, on either
part their Ware and other Traffic, and
sent into this to the North, not daring to
PENDE and fear, that at peace
Belleville, 18th October of the Union may
Sides of Ware material seized upon the
of Sir G. M. Wells.

Notice.
THE Iron Mill on the North side of Southern
assortment of the best of the most yield-
ing quality, which is to be sold at a low
price, and on credit, to the public, on either
part their Ware and other Traffic, and
sent into this to the North, not daring to
PENDE and fear, that at peace
Belleville, 18th October of the Union may
Sides of Ware material seized upon the
of Sir G. M. Wells.

Notice.
THE Iron Mill on the North side of Southern
assortment of the best of the most yield-
ing quality, which is to be sold at a low
price, and on credit, to the public, on either
part their Ware and other Traffic, and
sent into this to the North, not daring to
PENDE and fear, that at peace
Belleville, 18th October of the Union may
Sides of Ware material seized upon the
of Sir G. M. Wells.

Notice.
THE Iron Mill on the North side of Southern
assortment of the best of the most yield-
ing quality, which is to be sold at a low
price, and on credit, to the public, on either
part their Ware and other Traffic, and
sent into this to the North, not daring to
PENDE and fear, that at peace
Belleville, 18th October of the Union may
Sides of Ware material seized upon the
of Sir G. M. Wells.

Notice.
THE Iron Mill on the North side of Southern
assortment of the best of the most yield-
ing quality, which is to be sold at a low
price, and on credit, to the public, on either
part their Ware and other Traffic, and
sent into this to the North, not daring to
PENDE and fear, that at peace
Belleville, 18th October of the Union may
Sides of Ware material seized upon the
of Sir G. M. Wells.

Notice.
THE Iron Mill on the North side of Southern
assortment of the best of the most yield-
ing quality, which is to be sold at a low
price, and on credit, to the public, on either
part their Ware and other Traffic, and
sent into this to the North, not daring to
PENDE and fear, that at peace
Belleville, 18th October of the Union may
Sides of Ware material seized upon the
of Sir G. M. Wells.

Notice.
THE Iron Mill on the North side of Southern
assortment of the best of the most yield-
ing quality, which is to be sold at a low
price, and on credit, to the public, on either
part their Ware and other Traffic, and
sent into this to the North, not daring to
PENDE and fear, that at peace
Belleville, 18th October of the Union may
Sides of Ware material seized upon the
of Sir G. M. Wells.

Notice.
THE Iron Mill on the North side of Southern
assortment of the best of the most yield-
ing quality, which is to be sold at a low
price, and on credit, to the public, on either
part their Ware and other Traffic, and
sent into this to the North, not daring to
PENDE and fear, that at peace
Belleville, 18th October of the Union may
Sides of Ware material seized upon the
of Sir G. M. Wells.

Notice.
THE Iron Mill on the North side of Southern
assortment of the best of the most yield-
ing quality, which is to be sold at a low
price, and on credit, to the public, on either
part their Ware and other Traffic, and
sent into this to the North, not daring to
PENDE and fear, that at peace
Belleville, 18th October of the Union may
Sides of Ware material seized upon the
of Sir G. M. Wells.

Notice.
THE Iron Mill on the North side of Southern
assortment of the best of the most yield-
ing quality, which is to be sold at a low
price, and on credit, to the public, on either
part their Ware and other Traffic, and
sent into this to the North, not daring to
PENDE and fear, that at peace
Belleville, 18th October of the Union may
Sides of Ware material seized upon the
of Sir G. M. Wells.

Notice.
THE Iron Mill on the North side of Southern
assortment of the best of the most yield-
ing quality, which is to be sold at a low
price, and on credit, to the public, on either
part their Ware and other Traffic, and
sent into this to the North, not daring to
PENDE and fear, that at peace
Belleville, 18th October of the Union may
Sides of Ware material seized upon the
of Sir G. M. Wells.

Notice.
THE Iron Mill on the North side of Southern
assortment of the best of the most yield-
ing quality, which is to be sold at a low
price, and on credit, to the public, on either
part their Ware and other Traffic, and
sent into this to the North, not daring to
PENDE and fear, that at peace
Belleville, 18th October of the Union may
Sides of Ware material seized upon the
of Sir G. M. Wells.

Notice.
THE Iron Mill on the North side of Southern
assortment of the best of the most yield-
ing quality, which is to be sold at a low
price, and on credit, to the public, on either
part their Ware and other Traffic, and
sent into this to the North, not daring to
PENDE and fear, that at peace
Belleville, 18th October of the Union may
Sides of Ware material seized upon the
of Sir G. M. Wells.

Iron Ware

Persons leave to inform the Belleville and the public
continues to carry on the
its various branches, at the same place.

STREET

For Sale all descriptions of Sheet Iron Ware,
as well as a large and splendid assortment of
PREMIUM STOVES,
Common Cooking and Box Stoves.

Which he is convinced he can sell as low as any other establishment in this District. He trusts that by his close attention to business,
and a speedy and correct execution of all orders entrusted to him, to share a continuance of the good wishes of his patrons and the public
in general.

Cash paid for old Pewter, Copper & Brass.
JOHN STEVENS.
Belleville, 15th Nov. 1837.

For Sale.

A LOT of Land, containing 100 Acres, well watered and timbered, Four acres cleared being the first half of 30, in the 6th Concession of Thurlow. Apply to CAPTAIN O'BRIEN.

MACDONALD'S IMPROVED
Balm of Aniseed,
An Effective Remedy
For Coughs, Colds, Asthmas, Con-
sumptions, &c. &c.

<